2008 JUSTICE LECTURE

Greg Mortenson

Monday, September 8, 2008

5:00 pm

McLaren Complex, University of San Francisco

Greg Mortenson is the co-founder of the Central Asia Institute and co-author with David Three Cups of Tea, winner of the 2007 Kiriya Prize and the 2008 summer reading selection for incoming USF students. It is the riveting and inspiring account of mountain-climber Greg's efforts to bring education and literacy to remote and volatile regions of Afghanistan and 2007 Mortenson has established over 61 schools in the region providing education to 25, including 14,000 girls, where few educational opportunities existed before. He is a living legend in communities where he has gained the trust of Islamic leaders, military commanders, government officials, and tribal chiefs. Mortenson advocates girls' education as the top priority to promote economic peace and prosperity, and says, "you can drop bombs, hand out condoms, build roads, but until the girls are educated a society won't change."

No tickets or reservations are required for this event. Seating is available on a first come, first served basis.
